Brighton Management's Timely Action Highly Commended.

JOCKEY MARTIN RULED OFF.

Judges' Decision in Last Race Causes Dissatisfaction.

racing at Brighton had its effect on the management of the scaside track is evidenced by dealt with Jockey Willie Martin and his em- following communication: ployer, Eugene Leigh, at Brighton yesterday. Martin was summarily ruled off for pulling Ma Belle, and Mr. Leigh was informed that his specifie homes. There is no trouble in Wallace room was decidedly preferable to his company. The officials acted most promptly, and cannot be too strongly commended for their timely action. To permit such a palpable case of fraud to pass by unheeded would have worked incalculable injury to he track. It is to be hoped that the judges will not relax their vigilance, for there are a few more owners and jockeys who are play-ing with fire at Brighton, and who will sooner or later burn their fingers.

The race in which the officials took action was the fifth, and the writer can truthfully in the ring that Ma Belle was dead to Azrael. win, Ma Belle would not. Notwithstanding short price. 'The money came in on Azrael at agreat rate. At first it was said that Mr. known the miners withdrew from the bills Dwyer's commissioners played Fagot, but afterwards switched to Azrael and pounded the latter all over the ring. This made it lookas though Fagot had also been stiffened. The race looked that way also. Azrael and Crochet made the running, while Fagot and Ma Beile laid away, their riders making no exertion. Half way around young Lambley realized evidently that unless he made a move he'd get into trouble. He suddenly drove spurs into Fagot and sent him on, never stopping his exertions until the winning post was passed. Martin never made an effort with Ma Beile and the spectators hissed him when he returned to the scales. Judge Wheeler immediately notified him to appear before the Executive Committee and that body promptly ruled Martin off. Mr. Leigh was warned to take his horses off the track.

and proceeded to Wardner.

The colored troops had started for Wallace, but were suddenly recalled and returned to Missoula. Had these troops passed Wallace it is hard to tell what would have happened. The Gem mill was magazined ready for a match and the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mills colored troops had started for Wallace, but were suddenly recalled and returned to Missoula. Had these troops passed Wallace it is hard to tell what would have happened. The Gem mill was magazined ready for a match and the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mills world a match have been applied. For tunately for all, the trouble did not need such extreme measures. The miners kept a close watch of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mills, but when the non-union men surrendered the Dwyer's commissioners played Fagot, but at- and proceeded to Wardner.

The verdict was halled with positive joy by injured. The verdict was halled with positive joy by horsemen. Generally some one has a good word for a ruled-off boy, but it was not so in Martin's case. The writer talked with several turimen last night, and it was the universal opinion that Martin should have been ruled off long ago. This boy was ruled off at Elizabeth two years ago for pulling cracksman, but on his promise to do better he was reinstated. This time he is down for good, and he will never ride again unless it be at Gloucester, where everthing goes. The turr is well rid of this artist.

The judges gave a decision in the steeple-chase yesterday which caused universal dissatisfaction among the bettors. Clamor, who was well played 1-2-3, fell at the hurdle along the backstretch and threw his jockey. The horse got up, ran about firty yards and then stopped. His jockey was unhurt, and going after Clamor he remounted, took the rest of the jumps and cantered in for third money. The judges, however, refused to piace him third, claiming that he did not go the course. This did not seem fair to the 1-2-3 bettors, but following the rules strictly the decision of the judges was right. The jockey should have taken Clamor over the jump at which he sell and then gone on over the course. Alty Lakeland and one or two others saw the mistake the jockey had made, and shouted to him to pull up, but he paid no heed and finished. He was necessarily disqualified.

The Brighton Beach management should certainly widen their track on the back-stretch and on the turns. There is no reas-in why this should not be done. There is plenty of space between the outside rail and the icnee and the expense would be trifling. The character of the racing would be much improved and the popularity of the tracil much increased. A few dollars should not stand in the way of this very needed improvement.

The withdrawal of the crack Western filly, Helen Nichols, from the Lassie Stakes, caused n general disappaintment at Monmouth Park to-day. It looked as though the Westerners, despite their boasts of the unbeaten daughter of Iroquois, were a little bit alraid to meet such speedy customers as Lady Violet, Mendicapt. Miss Maude, Minnehaha and Atlanta. The reduced field left Lady Violet a hot favorite at the very short price of 1 to 4, and she just walked in. Miss Maude secured the place very easily and Mendicant was third. The opening event, a six furlong dash for maidens, proved a most hollow victory for Defargillo, the strangely named daughter of Onondaga and Elsinore, owned by Mr. Pierre Lorillard.
